

Looking for a new challenge?

Be a Jobzippers Ambassador

Would you like to join our unique and exclusive international talent network? Are you looking for extracurricular activities that will give you hands-on experience in event planning, community building, sales and marketing? Are you curious to get personalized career coaching? Are you keen to work with a dynamic and successful enterprise, have fun and at the same time make some money?

This can all be combined in one unforgettable experience. We're currently building an exclusive international community of inspiring Jobzippers Ambassadors who will help us shape the future of Jobzippers as well as recruiting in general. Let's make it legendary!

What is Jobzippers about?

Jobzippers aims at revolutionizing the way graduate recruiting works by building a central pan-European university career community. Our innovative online portal combined with unique features and products allows our partners and users to make the perfect match.

What are your benefits?

You will

- ✓ gain experience that will last a lifetime. We'll make it fun!
- ✓ build a unique professional network of extraordinary peer talents around the world.
- ✓ be the first picked for best job opportunities.
- ✓ have access to free personalized career coaching (planning and coordinating your career, CV checks, interviews, preparatory consultations and more).
- ✓ take part in free trips to meet other Ambassadors during our fun and exclusive Ambassador events.
- ✓ start building skills necessary for your future career.
- ✓ gain real work experience while still being at the university.
- ✓ be highly-visible on your campus.
- ✓ connect to managers of the leading companies in your area and around the globe.

Our hand-selected Ambassadors will receive

- ✓ a scholarship of 400 CHF per semester
- ✓ 4 CHF for each new profile they manage to attract

What will you do?

- Stimulate brand awareness & build a powerful campus community
- Actively attract new students
- Build a strong relationship with student associations, professors, university spin-offs and other campus groups
- Manage on-campus marketing activities
- Creatively find effective ways to reach out to prospective users
- Promote our social media channels among your fellow students
- Know about events on your campus calendar and leverage them to call attention to Jobzippers
- Solve exciting, complex and important tasks

What will we do for you?

You will be in close touch with us.

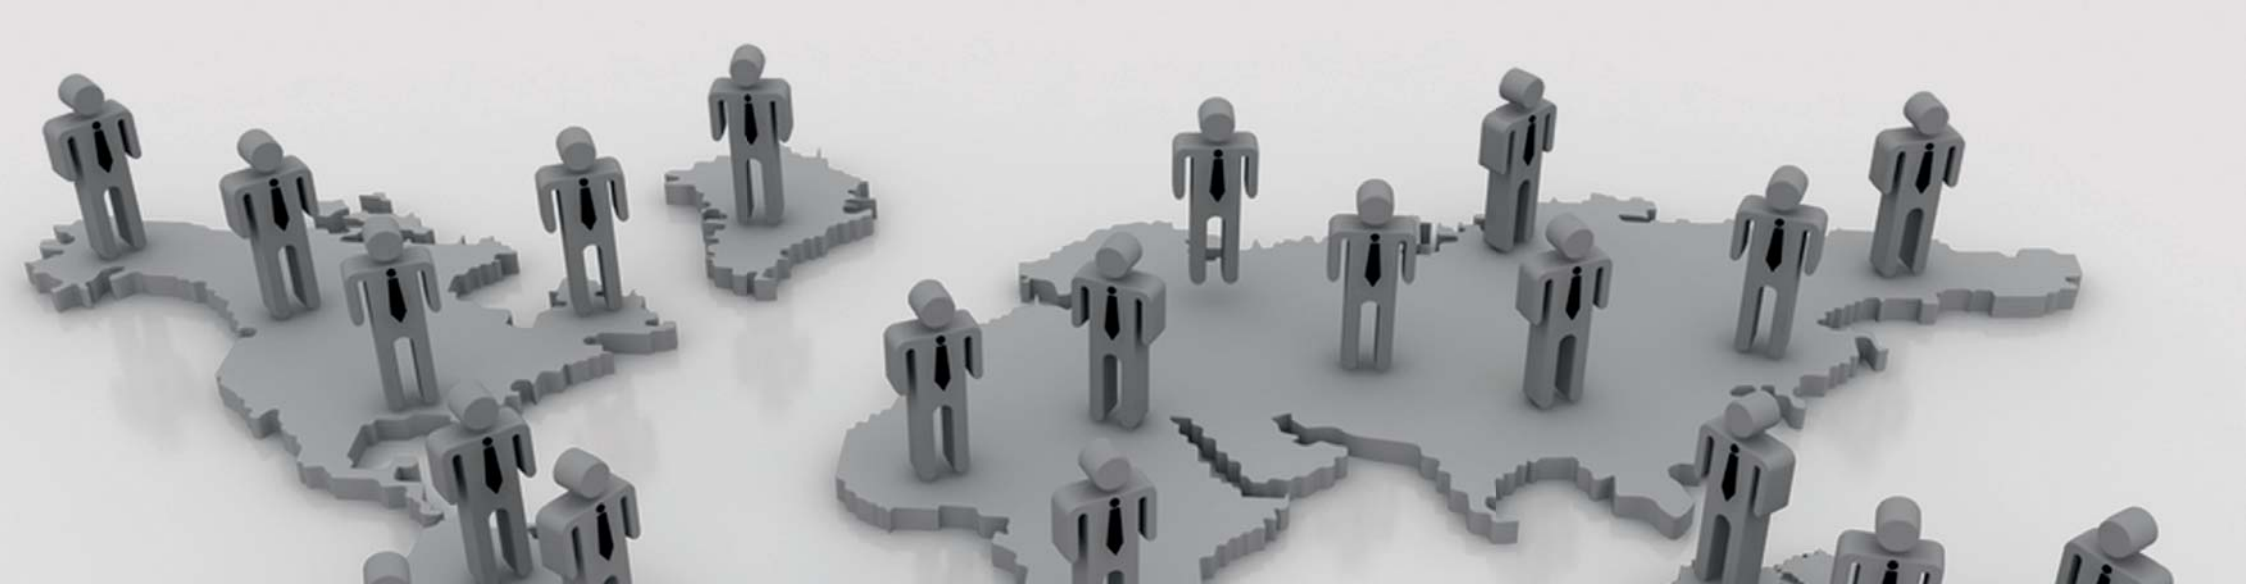

We won't just throw you into the cold water. We will help you plan and implement all the activities. Our dedicated community manager, Anastasia Kalinina, will be your point of contact at any time.

We value your time.

You only have to be engaged with Jobzippers for as much as it takes to reach the goals that we'll help you set.

All in all, you will do what you love while learning what you need and collaborating with talented people on a common mission. You will be a founding member of the powerful international community.

Testimonials

Sounds exactly like what you've been looking for?

“To me, being a Jobzippers Ambassador is an excellent way to gain first real work experience while still being a student. At the same time I greatly expanded my network locally at the university and got an insight into all the career opportunities which are available to me. As Jobzippers is a very young and dynamic company my opinion as well as my ideas are truly valued by all team members and I have full control as well as responsibility over my own work. At the same time I receive the right level of mentoring from more senior team members to fully develop my potential...”

Elias Mirza
Jobzippers Ambassador Lausanne

If you're outgoing, free-spirited, driven and curious, drop us a line at anastasia.kalinina@jobzippers.com and let's talk!

shape your future
Jobzippers

CEO

Peter Vogel

+41 (0) 58 / 508 00 00
peter.vogel@jobzippers.com

Community Manager

Anastasia Kalinina

+41 (0) 58 / 508 00 00
anastasia.kalinina@jobzippers.com